Black Socks and White Shirts.

By Julian Ralph.

GOTHAM'S GUESTS

English.

[Westminster Gazette.]

her nose.

THE JOURNAL.

W. R. HEARST. 162 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 26, 1896.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

THE WEATHER.

that it will be generally fair, with westerly ships!

would like to fly.

censure from Congress. And he never kind of money he has. will get anything else from the same active in the West.

vent her spleen on somebody.

teach manners in them, at least.

give the composite city her name. Staten Island will feel very lonesome Britain."

from Scotland wings. decreasing in Lon-

that this is a good field for crooks.

MORE SHIPS! Measures for reorganizing the Navy abound fust at present, but the "informing thrill" which is needed before into close and dangerous attention with newspaper: sources than we possess, and with a public of perennially grumbling taxpayers, has ships enough in construction to make two possess, and with a Captain Boatner gave expression to at the Matteawan Prison Asylum a pyromaniac, because the results of any manifestations of his mania are likely beautiful city of the Golden Horn, useless and futile. does, which is equivalent to a defiance sour effect.

to clash. are preparing for a tremendous strug- Senator Blanchard all the aid he could of his profession. He was handsome gle on sea we must spend untold mill- in his contest with Captain Boatner and distinguished in manner, and lons in war ships. But it does follow for the seat in the Senate made vacant leaves thousands of friends. closer relations with the mysterious cessor of Senator White, and Captain his old associates who think that these America is opening its hundred mar- help President Cleveland loaned Sen- should be on deck. With all the old kets to us; when the great aggressive ator Blanchard. traders of Europe are preparing to dis- There is not a Democrat in the fall to pieces during the putting to-trade will compel us to think of them, view which, it appears, he now denies, the interview was repeated orally in the interview was repeated orally in the interview was repeated orally in the presence of Captain Boatner and two other Congressmen. At that time will set his face toward Tammany Hail. But more than one boss what we have done in the line of warrend at the time had did not deny it, and at that time will probably find the conditions of what we have done in the line of war- he did not deny it, and at that time his his career changed by the time the ship building; to acquire the renown denial would have saved it from print. Autumn leaves have brightened into with a miniature fleet, would be mad- inform "The States"-whatever it is- HOW ROYALTY MOURNS. LITERARY SHOP-TALK. More or Less in ness. The march of destiny and the which is disturbing itself in this matresponsibilities of our national growth ter, that Captain Boatner is hardly have made it imperative that we should important enough elsewhere, however carry our naval equipment vastly far- he may loom and tower in Louisiana, ther than it has yet been carried before to make it likely that any paper would Entered in the Post Office in New York as we can consider ourselves even in com- misquote him even if one were mendaparative safety.

Laws reorganizing both the Navy anybody misquote Captain Boatner? .....$4.50 Department and its personnel, like that 300 one just introduced by Congressman shown by the arrival in this country of the English pugillst, Pedlar Palmer, out his money, his money, his money, his money, his money, his money, flulick, are very well in their way; of the English pugilist, Pediar Palmer, but more imperative than these is a just at a time when there is so much lower to large attention subscribers with law which will make the building of a og faelr addresses changed must give their old truly great Navy possible, and will ain and some other of a half dozen na-Official weather forecasts for to-day indicate hour is more ships-more ships-more assault on that Government he told a used on locomotives. England is jumping on the British power delivered here the day before brakes were required to insure safety, Ambassador at Constantinople because yesterday" (in Senator Wolcott's they would be used without an ordi-Some very uncomplimentary things lishmen down to the day I am talking the City Fathers should take up some were said in Brooklyn yesterday about Great Britain has never done one single other problem with which to wrestle. country when it was a colony of Great ers.

a new hotel for his involuntary us with benefits for centuries. But the strance from the German Ambassador. ble man lost his life unnecessarily. bald-haded and wise old American The grounding of the incoming The are four Brooklyn lads acting the echoes of public opinion in the shore in the fog is unfortunate, but tive proof that at least the rinng land over which he presides, smiled there are no casualties to deplore. Alion in the City of Churches is grimly when he heard the Senator's though the Campania and St. Paul impeachment of Britain, and gave him were said to be racing some time bethree times three with flappings of his fore the accident, there is nothing to aunted for on the the- The drinking members of the Brook-Eng. a criminals are coming lyn police force paid nearly $12,000 in The wisdom of the people in St. New York to find out how true it is fines last year as penalties for their in- Louis is shown by the fact that they dulgence, and still Mayor Wurster re- are arranging to force ice-cold air fuses to give them a chance to get even through the building in which the Rewith the saloons by closing side doors publicans are to hold their National on Sundays.

or new fleets can be on a level with The following may possibly be enti- express its appreciation of Mound City hose of other first-class nations is tled to brief consideration. It is clipped hospitality. still facking. We are still trying to from "The States," of Louisiana, which pour a quart into a pint cup. Brought is presumed to be some fashion of Speaker Fish, of Albany, are both urgthe greatest naval power in the world, we are glad to note the fact that Congressman hurry up and get through. Mr. Reed vitally interested in questions of world. Bouther has denounced the interview with him is a condidate for President and Mr. wide importance to the solution of published by the New York Journal, in which Fish is a candidate for Governor, so it which we can contribute nothing without ships, we are still clinging to the penny-wise and pound foolish policy. mny-wise and pound-feelish policy. with the representative of the New York Jour-England, with no more spare re- nal and never used the language credited to him.

tion to make two navies as large as the Journal correspondent at this to be altogether too costly to society. our present one. France is building pinch, and his reputation, are as good The liberation of Perry and others of with all her might, and as if she ex- as Captain Boatner's. It would appear his type, in the confusion consequent pected to be engaged in naval warfare that his memory is much better. on a conflagration, would be eminently old bankrupt Spain is putting the wherein Captain Boatner, being asked & fire-proof asylum of their own. It is money which she cajoles out of un"whether, in his opinion, the pending has recommended an appropriation for willing capitalists into new and mas- lean was a popular one?" replied in almost everything else, has not thought sive armored vessels. Italy, pinched effect that since Mr. Cleveland disre- of this. for money as she never has been be- garded the views of House Democrats, fore since she became a unified nation, never consulted them, paid neither perconstructs mighty floating castles of sonal, political nor business heed to rious personality from the intellectual constructs mighty floating castles of sonal, political nor business heed to from and steel, and puts little armies them, an opinion on that point from them. And Russia, enthusiastic him was neither wished for nor worth with the prospect of securing the long sought Southern outlet for her navies reason why he should weary himself gracefully. His annual speech at the subject of skilled technical study on the reason why he should weary himself gracefully. His annual speech at the subject of skilled it., and so his head has been made to know every word you say."

The Head of the German Emperor. [Westmiaster Gazette.]

The events of the list formight have drawn occupied a lofty place and filled it very gracefully. His annual speech at the willed II., and so his head has been made to know every word you say."

The Head of the German Emperor. [Westmiaster Gazette.]

The events of the list formight have drawn occupied a lofty place and filled it very gracefully. His annual speech at the subject of skilled itchnical study on the of peace and war, and with acquiring forming opinions under White House Academy banquet was almost as ima good title to the possession of the conditions which made his opinions portant a function as the ministerial sian and English interests are likely Boatner, nor their expression novel to was once said of him by a witty Amerhis lips. He has felt that way and ican that he could do everything ad-If does not necessarily follow that be- talked that way ever since he chose to mirably - except paint - which was cause the warlike Powers of Europe believe that President Cleveland gave rather hard on a painter at the head that in this age, when distance no by the elevation of Senator White to The announcement of Mr. Croker's longer counts as an important factor, the Supreme bench. Senator Blanchard return to participation in active poliwhen we are preparing to enter into defeated Captain Boatner as the sucand teeming Orient - when South Boatner has ever attributed it to the be parlous times, and that the captain little of navies. Now the trend of our After Captain Boatner had the inter- the comfortable seclusion of an Eng-

The discretion of prize fighters is these tidings recall the nursery rhyme: law which will make the building of a talk of a fight between Great Brit-

The proposition of the Board of Aldermen to require that all bicycles be For instance, we are told that the news sellers? An interesting test for every one to equipped with brakes suggests the ter-One of the best preliminary bonds of union between New York and Brooklyn would be the pneumatic postal tube across the Bridge.

It was the knowledge that she was to be isolated in the East that made England so suddenly and unpleasantly and the presence of the best preliminary bonds of union between New York and Brooklyn wheels to a wagon. It simply adds that broke the news, and hurried whose books do not self if you her posts.

Senator Frye is apt to be a trific in under whose books do not self if you her persons to be a trific in under whose books do not self if young in its a "selfer" read the news, and hurried whose books do not self if young in its a "selfer" read the news, and hurried whose books do not self if young in its a "selfer" read the news, and hurried whose books do not self if young in its a "selfer" read the news, and hurried whose books do not self if young in its a "selfer" read the news, and hurried whose books do not self if young in its a "selfer" read the news, and hurried the news is a "selfer" read the news, and hurried the news, and hurried the news, and hurried the news is a "selfer" read the news, and hurried the news and hurried the news and hurried the news and ther purple of the course. This was relianced in the news and the raine of its londer in the news to be a trific in the news and the point in the least that the new wing it is a "selfer" read the news, and hurried the news and hurried the news and hurried the seal, read the news, and hurried the news and hurried the news for the londer in the seal that the news and the young in the purple of the seal, read the news and hurried the seal to the seal, read the news and hurried the seal that the news and the young in the condition of the part of the seals that the news and the whold out take £12.00.00 for his London to the part of the seals that the news of the course, in the news to be. This was re the marvellous eulogium upon that ment on the liberties of wheelmen. If which was yesterday. that this country was peopled by Eng- as only amateurs find them necessary, lishmen down to the day I am talking the City Fathers should take up some

There was applause in the Senate of waters. By and by Brooklyn will reach out a tunnel and hitch it on.

There was applause in the Senate when this outburst was over. When the outburst was over. When the Queen reads the report of it in the Queen reads the report of it in the Papers, I write to ask you what it means, recently cut out the line "Let pinch-to detect a single note of grief among the Warden Van De Carr should be Tower of London she will be greatly bear and crow," an allusted the subject of more purely image that the subject of more purely image that the subject of the mourning in it all. They are unable to see a single sign of true mourning in it all. They are unable to detect a single note of grief among the where it is and if there is an appliance of the songs in the music halls, and of true mourning in it all. They are unable to detect a single note of grief among the where the subject of more purely image. There was applause in the Senate Bangor and Watchester County, and this Loyal Legion, and having read of it in the papers, I write to ask you what it means, where the subject of subject of the songs in the music halls, and of true mourning in it all. They are unable to detect a single note of grief among the bear a good deal about the songs in the music halls, and of true mourning in it all. They are unable to see a single sign of true mourning in it all. They are unable to see a single sign of true mourning in it all. They are unable to see a single sign of true mourning in it all. They are unable to see a single sign of true mourning in it all. They are unable to see a single sign of true mourning in it all. They are unable to see a single of true mourning in it all. They are unable to see a single sign of true mourning in it all. They are unable to see a single with the son the subject of the subject of the son the subject of the subject of the son and withing the son the subject of the son and the subject of the son and withing the son and the subject of the son and the subject of the son a show that the running ashore was due to anything but the fog.

Convention. If they will fix it so that adely ing their legislative subordinates to

It would seem rather risky to keep for the next quarter of a century. Poor The interview in question was one undesirable. Pyromaniacs should have pronouncement at Greenwich. Lord firmly announces that she will lay Moreover, Captain Boatner said much Leighton was a delightful host in his down a new ship every time England more to the same bitter, disgruntled, Road, where he had united the wonders of architecture and painting on a reto Britannia in all the seas where Rus- Nor are such views new to Captain duced scale in the happiest manner. It scaffoldings of local politics likely to pute those immensely profitable markets with us—we should be properly equipped navally.

There is not a Democrat in the gether of Greater New York, and with investigations innumerable on the horizon, Mr. Croker himself doubtless thinks it a time to keep a watchful In the days when we were exclusively cloak room expression at least, albeit eye on things; but not that it is the devoted to dominating and developing reasons evidently now and then arise moment to resume command publicly. our mighty Western area we thought why he dislikes to see them in print. He will look at New York politics from

I have been told by men and women of Household—Haberdashers Display Only refined, critical taste that Mrs. Kate Douglas Wiggin was one of the best short story las Wiggin was one of the best short story writers in America, and also that her portrayals of New England life and character were among the best to be found in our national literature. This sounds like very national literature. This sounds like very health, and works with characteristic assiduity. London, Jan. 25 .- We have been getting clous enough to do so. Why should some remarkable glimpses of the Queen's national literature. This sounds like very a large bookstore, as he administered a brisk slap to 2 copy of "The Village Watch chased and preserved as a memorial." with a nger, boarded a cable

The Queen was in the parlor eating bread and honey.

Now, the town is full of marvellous short a corrupt practice act, which he will try to push through the Ohio Legislature. It would put a glided youth, as the novelists.

The maid was in the rand honey. truly great Navy possible, and will ain and some other of a half dozen naprovide for the furnishing of men to operate it. The crying need of the hour is more ships—more ships—more ships—more in the part banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The maid was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in the yard banging out the clothes;

The was in great writers—but how many of us are good Prince Frederick Leopold, of Prussia, who has the buttonhole. sellers?

No wonder that a convict has invented a flying machine. Most convicts that silver certificates are taking the vented a flying machine. Most convicts that silver certificates are taking the vented a flying machine. Most convicts that silver certificates are taking the vented a flying machine. Most convicts that silver certificates are taking the vented a flying machine. Most convicts that silver certificates are taking the vented a flying machine. Most convicts that silver certificates are taking the vented a flying machine. Most convicts that silver certificates are taking the vented a flying machine. Most convicts that silver certificates are taking the vented a flying machine. Most convicts that silver certificates are taking the vented a flying machine. place of greenbacks in circulation, bewould like to fly.

Ambassador Bayard will get a mild place of greenbacks in circulation, benot enjoy cycling themselves, and that they are therefore trying to handicap

they are the trying to handicap

they are others in having pleasure. Among breakfast table. The old lady came to many of the strangely gifted men and wowheelmen the opinion prevails that a breakfast at the usual hour—9:30. Princess men who have received the highest praise from cerities and magging gifted men and wo men who have received the highest praise from cerities and magging gifted men and wo men who have received the highest praise from cerities and magging gifted men and wo men who have received the highest praise from cerities and magging gifted men and wo men who have received the highest praise from cerities and magging gifted men and wo men who have received the highest praise from cerities of Harriford, Conn. A number of the other pasquengers on the car.

Wheelmen the opinion prevails that a breakfast at the usual hour—9:30. Princess men who took it, and Walter San-from a number of the other pasquengers on the car.

Wheelmen the opinion prevails that a breakfast at the usual hour—9:30. Princess men who took it, and Walter San-from an arrived the attention of several of the other from cerities of Harriford, Conn. A number of the car.

Wheelmen to opinion prevails that a breakfast at the usual hour—9:30. Princess men who took it, and Walter San-from an arrived the attention of several of the other from cerities of Harriford, Conn. A number of the other form and the pasquengers on the car.

Wheelmen the opinion prevails that a breakfast at the usual hour—9:30. Princess men who took it, and Walter San-from an arrived the attention of several of the other from cerities of Harriford, Conn. A number of the other form and the conductor made his rounds the pasquengers on the car.

Wheelmen the opinion prevails that a breakfast at the usual hour—9:30. Princess men who took it, and Walter San-from an arrived the attention of several of the other form and the conductor made his rounds the pasquengers of the other form and the conductor made his rounds the pasquengers of the other form and the conductor made his rounds the pasquengers of the other form and the conductor made his rounds the pasquengers of the other form and the conductor made his rounds the pas admirers of Great Britain, and in his guards and cowcatchers such as are out that the Queen attended to state af which takes its name from the gray of the House. assault on that Government he told a used on locomotives.

All the large cities in the large cities in the interior of the State condemn the Raines bill.

The initial measure against Home Rule assault on that Government he told a used on locomotives.

It is this possibility of further Alder that commanded a view of the village road the next day. Her Majesty walked in the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on that commanded a view of the village road the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on that commanded a view of the village road the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on that commanded a view of the village road the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on that commanded a view of the village road all that it contained, and enabled its palace grounds heavily veiled, but the Princess manner of the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on that commanded a view of the village road all that it contained, and enabled its palace grounds heavily veiled, but the Princess manner of the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on that commanded a view of the village road all that it contained, and enabled its palace grounds heavily veiled, but the Princess manner of the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on that commanded a view of the village road all that it contained, and enabled its palace grounds heavily veiled, but the Princess manner of the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on that commanded a view of the village road that commanded a view of the poket meaner of the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on that commanded a view of the village road that commanded a view of the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on that commanded a view of the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on that commanded a view of the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on that commanded a view of the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on the poket meaner allowed and read state papers on the poket mean The initial measure against Home Rule said, "and could not give my assent to imperative against the first encroacharound. Each one of these half-dozen stories is interesting, and two or three of To-day the old lady took a ride in the them are remarkable for the imaginative he did not outwit Russia. She must speech). "I say that from the time nance compelling their adoption; but speech and she will be used without an ordinary speech and she will be used with the speech and she will be used with the speech and she will be used with the spee

It is a curious fact that while a great many highly imaginative writers have cre-The newspapers think it is the correct ated a distinct Yankee mythology, it has promisers." the public schools in this city. We kindly act to the United States-or to Cable cars are more in keeping with thing to do to pretend that they are loyal invariably taken the same form, that of an her colony-not one. I say that she Aldermanic bulk than such a graceful by putting signs of mourning around their idealization of the New Englanders themher colony—not one. I say that she her colony—not one. I say that she has availed herself of every single opbas availed hers union with New York unless she can hurt the United States and to harm the laters to turn their attention to fend- socks and white shirts. The florists show stranger within their gates. Probably only dark flowers. Bond street milliners have filled their windows with mourning have filled their windows with mourning has been the subject of more purely imag. Editor Journal:

Only dark flowers. Bond street milliners as the "good old New England tea-table" What Is the Loyal Legion:

has been the subject of more purely imag. Editor Journal:

Dear Sir—Having heard a good deal about the subject of the subje The Lord Chamberlain is busy in bonnets, etc. This may all be true, but inative writing than anything else between ided by the mistakes that Warden perplexed, because she vidently belon made. And the city might give lieves that England has been loading have provoked, it is said, a remonstrate which would some populace, though it is a fact that there is a sind then what delicious teas did Aunt Sindy prepare for the city folks, as she called her Summer boarders! There were great plates of biscults, light and sweet. and dainty china dishes, heaped high with luscious raspberries, smothered in rich yel-WALDORF-C. S. Goseton, of the Bank of Montreal; Kenneth Campbell, of London; Mr. and Mrs. F. Clerke, of Milan, and Charles home preparation. There was a thick, low cream, and cut-glass dishes filled with Johnston, of London.

HOLLAND.-E. F. Powers, of London; J. L.
Peterman, Chicago; R. A. Carior, Pittsburg; E. A. Blacsborn, London; James Lyons Clemin, Buenos Ayres; Wallace C. Henderson, North-ampton, England; J. W. Justus, Hamburg; James Clendenar, Baltimore; F. F. Fox, Okicago. julcy beefsteak at one end of the table and a huge savory omelette at the other, and in the middle a frosted jelly cake of the sort that no one but Aunt Sindy herself could prepare.

This is what I call highly imaginative writing, and New England mythology is the rich in just such specimens as the one that I have quoted. Mrs. Stowe was the more, Philadel- originator of this school of romance, and Editor Journal: Singes, Lefcester; J. C. Whitmore, Philadelphia; M. Ling, J. T. Counningham, Philadelphia; M. S. Smith, Philadelphia; M. S. Smith, Philadelphia; M. S. Smith, Philadelphia; D. Kirk, Pittaburg; S. B. Serton, Hyde Park; C. W. Burbank, Philadelphia; D. Serton, Hyde Park; C. W. Burbank, Philadelphia; M. Show me a New England farmhouse teather than the control of this school of romance, and her limitators are numerous and active at the present day. But I will defy you to desire to study medicine and become a physical will you kindly inform me if I am the Control of this school of romance, and her limitators are numerous and active at the present day. But I will defy you to do do commence the study of medicine, and which is the car started.

These are stirring times in fashion's desire to study medicine and become a physical manner of the car started.

These are stirring times in fashion's desire to study medicine and become a physical manner of the car started.

These are stirring times in fashion's desire to study of medicine, and which is the control of this school of romance, and her limitators are numerous and active at the control of this school of romance, and her limitators are numerous and active at the control of the started.

These are stirring times in fashion's desire to study medicine and become a physical manner of the study of medicine, and the control of the started desire to study medicine and become a physical manner of the study of medicine, and the control of the started desire to study medicine and become a physical manner of the car started. show me a New England farmhouse tea-table in which such a variety and quantity what are the necessary qualifications and the dist steps to take. Very respectfully, ABOUT CAPTAIN BOATNER. several of the zero draughts are trained on Tom Reed, the whole country will J. M. Crosse, Utica; D. P. Toole, Providence, mer boarders—that is to say, all at once. mer bourders-that is to say, all at once. Brooklyn, Jan. 22, 1896. Mrs. Wiggin's imagination defles all es-

ST. JAMES-T. B. Dollan, Chicago; M. C. hurchill, Decatur; C. Scovell, Watertown; W. I. Gaskill, Meadville, Pa.; G. E. Tee, Cincinon, D. C.; A. tle nephew until he meets a woman whose ma; W. G. Fitnbugh, M. L. Williams, Lou-; if has been as lonely and sad as his n; D. E. Wood, Elgin, S. Crump, Spokane. PARK AVENUE—H. D. Fint, Syracuse; E. Morton, New Haven; Hugh McLean, Buffalo; R. Murphy, Boston; Jacob Bates, Philadela, Buffalo; G. T. Parsons, Manchester.

Tomaka:

Tomaka: WESTMINSTER-W. M. Thompson, Topeka;
H. Jones, Scranton; M. E. Miller, Chicago;
M. Johnston, Chicago; L. C. Whitney, Boston;
B. Mumford, Syracuse. and of that of her twin sister Lovice, dead When President Krueger Knows now many years. There is humor in Mrs. Wiggin's work as well as pathos, humor of a kind that we seldom find in the writ ings of women; and the talk that she puts into the mouths of her characters is always quaint and entertaining, though the dialogue is faulty in a great many instances. in fact, I am afraid that Mrs. Wiggin has not a very correct ear, though, after all, that is of small consequence, so long as the heart and brain and humorous sense a man who was once sweet on her, and then are as healthy as hers are. To sum up, I love story that she was prevented from finishare as healthy as hers are. To sum up, I heartily commend "The Village Watch ing he knows no English; but if you are speaking ill of him or saying anything against the Trans-vani he knows every word you say."

Tower" to the attention of such of my readers as wish to know what a "good readers as wish to know what a "good Mr. Anthony Hope has an excellent with the Cuban revolutionists. He continues to result in New York. ublic attention to the character of Kaiser and II., and so his head has been made ubject of skilled technical study on the of Mr. O'Dell, the phrenologist. Under thing portrait of the Emperor, now on in Ludgate Circus, may be read this aption, based on a careful observation of the Kaiser "The Prisoner of Zenda" and other readcovers of "Frivolous Cupid," a volume of short stories published by Platt, Bruce & close that an attempt to liven up the gloom of the comparison with the other. There are Mr. Hope achieved his well-deserved fame.

That is a charitable way of putting the Third is a charitable way of putting the case. "Chicago Tribune." matter, for I am sure that the author of s been kept "The Indiscretion of the Duchess," has not a nutocratic indeed, his interaction in the interaction of the Duchess," has not by any means inished his literary career. There are eight short stories or sketches in Dower in "Frivolous Cupid," and not one of them him. And, is up to the standard that Mr. Hope has less himself already carefullished for his work. aiready established for his work. we may be book is clearly printed and neatly bound, of London study this phrenolog- and that is the best that can be said of it.

from one or another oc-nurmured refrain of the boarter roo," Possibly it guished by "The Charm," a delicate bit of attatesmen.

The Cosmopolitan for February is distin-guished by "The Charm," a delicate bit of work by Walter Besant and W. H. Pollock. That vividly unpleasant writer, Mr. James Nature," to the disagreeable stage, after a page of farmyard photography. Mr. Zang will's literary chat is especially good, and the magazine, as a whole, far and away the control of the magazine. one is sufficiently interested to keep a Nature," to the disagreeable stage, after a the page of farmyard photography. Mr. Zang-

> The "Barren Grounds" matter is, on the other hand, admirable, and Mr. Poultney Bigelow continues his "German Struggle for

Miss Lanchester.

Prince Henry of Battenberg. Some of bigh praise, but it did not impress me near-ly of the Rev. Dr. Samuel F. Smith, the author of her face flushed

State Senator Garfield, of Ohio, is sponsor for car. Behind her phia, was seventy-five years old the other day, take the pretty girl's part, and her friends marked the day by giving her a purse of $18,000. In speaking of her the Philadelphia Record says: "Mrs. Gillesphe a great-granddaughter of Benjamin Franklin, the celebrated philanthropist and pairiot, is the daughter of William J. Duane, for a time Secretary of the Treasury under General Jackson, and she has long been one of Philadelphia's most cue. Then a white-haired old gentleman ruly, New York, Jan. 21, 1896.

the United States is composed of ex-army and navy officers primarily. It has three classes: First, regular and volunteer officers, who were actually engaged in the suppression of the rebellion; second, eldest sons of the original nembers, who are eligible upon reaching their majority; third, non-combatants especially

Not Too Old.

[Apply to the secretary of any medical college

Another Family Jar.

an imperial explosion at Berlin. The excitable young Hobenzollern has his own ideas about petticoat government, and he will call his rectted as hearly as he tticoat government, and he will call his ther down as sharply as he did his grandma

The War Cloud.

[New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Henry Watterson, in speaking about the next A Lucid Explanation.

A woman has the same unsatisfied feeling fo

There Are Others. [Utica Observer.] Bob Ingersoll says with all his beart he is

The Jester.

Terrible Thought. "Beauty is only skin deep," said the zebra

True to His Vow.

The Trouble. "Thomas Hardy believes in calling a spade a of our own time is superior to the one who

Had Heard It,

"Lend me 29 marks, will you? I baven't a

Wanted to Please

He Was No Hero.

hero?"
"He is his own valet." Detroit Free Press. Hardly.

Caught in the the Public Eye, Metropolitan Whirl.

Germany for lack of respect in talking to the Princess and the Emptess, is the son of the famons "Red Prince." Frederick Charles, He is a young man about thirty years old, and rather frail and slender. He cares little for army service, and for that reason has been no tavorite with the Emperor. He is the wealthlest of all the Hohenzollerns. A decorative reproduction of the death-mask the youth a particle, and he continued to study of our Congressional methods. He spends floor, her eyes filling with indignant tears, Mrs. Elizabeth Duane Gillespie, of Philadel. their fists and awaited an opportunity to

The girl's glance continued to be fassignalled to the conductor, who had become cognizant of the state of affairs, and After forty-two years of service as lady in was regarding the young man with some

"Conductor," said the old gentlemen, as that officer came to the front of the cars "just put that young reffian off. I have daughters myself," he added to the rest of the passengers, who looked their approval; 'and I won't see a young lady insulted in this manner."

"If the conductor don't put him off,' observed another gentleman, "I'll do it my-The conductor rang the bell for the car to stop, and addressed the offending youths "Come, now, get off the car," he said. "What for?" asked the young man, ceasing to smile.

"Fer mashin'," replied the conductor, "Get a move on, quick!"

"O r I'll give you some valuable assistance with my boot," observed the passenger who had spoken before,

"If one of you lays a hand on me," responded the gilded youth, "I'll break his wooden head. That girl is my sister, and she's mad because I wouldn't take her to the matinee this afternoon, that's all." "And I wish you'd all attend to your own affairs," exclaimed the pretty girl, as she burst into tears. And then the conducpassed away, sleeves are coming down to something near their proper size, and the much-joked-about theatre hat is a thing of the past. But the other day I saw a HOFFMAN—A. Adelsdorfer, San Francisco; T.

Dunlop, Trenton; T. W. Ward, Chicago; F.
London; R. Mandel, Chicago; F.
tablished tradition, and assumes a form that in one story at least is faintly sugtion.]

Mrs. Wiggin's imagination defices all established tradition, and assumes a form that in one story at least is faintly sugtion.] avenue with a "waterfall" on her head, BRUNSWICK—J. C. Sawer, Dover, N. H.:

BRUNSWICK—J. C. Sawer, Dover, N. H.:

BRUNSWICK—J. C. Sawer, Dover, N. H.:

BRUNSWICK—J. C. Whumford, Philadelphia;

Brunswick and in the same sort of a "water-fall" find flourished during the war and the relates to a native-born New Englander who had a natural gift for making, repairing and playing on the violin, and who becomes blind and lives alone with his lit
Brunswick—J. C. Sawer, Dover, N. H.:

Brunswick—J. C. Sawer, Dover, Dover, N. H.:

Brunswick—J. C. Sawer, Dover, N. H.:

Brunswick—J. C. Sawer, Dover, N. H.:

Brunswick—J. C. Sawer, Dover, Dov It was exactly the same sort of a "water-

> Somebody sneered at Kipling the other day, "and now Kipling Is writing a play? ten three or four plays already, only to destroy them without submitting them to emocratic National Convention, said in Wash- any manager or star. A man who can do that is likely to produce a play worth while when the time comes.

> The New York newsboy of the present age is a very different creature from his nat they shall be put up again and be shot age is a very different creature from his t." Mr. Watterson is strongly opposed to the predecessor of a dozen or more years ago. His prototype was an independent, blustering and impuchase be was limble to spurt tobacco juice on your boots and e scape. The newsboy of today is a whining suppliant in night after night at the same place, where there was perhaps one a dozen years ago, to anything beneath lying and thievery.

In many respects, however, the newsboy flourished a decade or two ago. He is better housed and clothed, and has better and more regular meals-that is to say, if he avalls himself of the opportunities that organized charity place within his reach, And with better food and shelter has come the night school that is an important feature of every lodging house designed espe-cially for boys of the street. In the night school he obtains the rudiments of an education, and it often happens that he learns cent in my pocket."

The Professor- "Here's a hundred mark plece for you. Give me 80 marks change." Journal are other occupations better than the selling ournal are other occupations better than the selling of papers and the blackening of boots open to him. As he goes upward his place is The Amateur Photographer (photographing a taken by boys of allen birth, who only peasant)-Please laugh a little.
Peasant-Shall I laugh loud? Boaton Courier. know enough to shout their wares and make change, and in this way the profession deteriorates socially. Uncle Russell and the Czar.

[Washington Star.] Possibly this is only a first step toward sur-rounding himself with a corps of clerks with which to put up a Russell Sage defence in case of being the only great maritime nation In closing it is deemed does ble to their liveliest colus,

A Big Law Practice.

Sarah as a Grandmother.

[Detroit Free Press.]

the best of the 10-cent periodicals. Harper's for February continues William Black's "Briseis," which never should have been commenced Liberty" to such good purpose that one wonders how he can ever be the Mr. Poultney Bigelow he often is.

[Chleago Dispatch.] Miss Edith Lanchesier, of London, was

His Prospects.

[Washington Star.]

John L. Sullivan will open a saloon in Chicago and will probably do well if he can get rid of his own farronagm.

Hardly.

Hardly.

"I gness I know what I saw with my own creation of the can get rid of his own farronagm."

Hardly.

"I gness I know what I saw with my own creation of the can get rid of his own farronagm.

"You wouldn't call that sublased testimony, would you?" asked the other man. Indianapolis of men than the average woman.